JASON STALNAKER

Board Member

TESTIMONY

Jason grew up in Elkton, Maryland in a Christian home. He was saved on July 4, 1981. After graduating from a Christian School, he felt called to train for the ministry at Pensacola Christian College in Pensacola, Florida. As a senior, he transferred to Maryland Baptist Bible College, graduating with a Bachelor Degree in Secondary Education.

He worked in ministry teaching, preaching, and A/V ministry in several churches for a dozen years. Through a series of tragedies, struggles, and wrong decisions, he was incarcerated at James T. Vaughn Correctional Center. God used the ministry of the chapel, including Tim Heald of Prison Outreach of Delaware, to rededicate his life and begin an intimate journey of healing and renewal in Him.

Jason currently lives in Elkton, MD and is an active member of Brandywine Valley Church in Wilmington, DE. He is also a member of Broken Beginnings, teaching, preaching, and leading in worship.
